

Lyrics to "The Voyage Begins"

By CJ Madsen, Age 16

We go, we go on a journey, you know!
We start ere the sun shows her face.
We fly, we fly to the edge of the sky.
We'll travel from place to place.

We'll start, we'll start with a song in our heart
And hope that we'll come through.
We soar, we soar; we'll journey evermore.
Oh, won't you join us, too?

O'er mountains, fells, through valleys and dales,
The stars shall lead us along.
And when despair and dread fill the air,
We'll lighten our hearts with a song.

We know our roam will lead us back home,
If we all do our best.
Now come ere dawn, and if we press on,
We'll reach the end of our quest.

Lyrics to Other Unwritten Song

By CJ Madsen, Age 16

Nothing will stop me.
Nothing will drag me down.
I will be victorious,
And someday I'll receive my crown.
