[Lights go out and come up on Laman standing in the streets of Jerusalem alone.]

Unsure $\text{♩} = 72$

The musical score consists of three staves. The top staff is for Laman, starting with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat, and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is marked as 'Unsure' with a dotted quarter note followed by a '72'. The lyrics begin with 'For ten days, we've traveled back a - gain. Here to beg for an - cient script - ure from old'. The piano part starts below the treble clef, with a bass clef, a key signature of one flat, and a 3/4 time signature. The piano part continues with a dynamic 'p' (piano). The middle staff is for Laman, with a treble clef, one flat, and a 3/4 time signature. The lyrics continue with 'La - ban in his den. We all cast lots to see who'd go, and so it fell on me. I will'. The piano part continues below the bass clef. The bottom staff is for the piano, with a bass clef, one flat, and a 3/4 time signature. The piano part continues with a dynamic 'rit.' (ritardando) and a tempo of 'Sneaky $\text{♩} = 60$ '. The lyrics end with 'go and do what the Lord com - mands, Though I do not know if it's God's com - mand.'
